

REMOTE MONITORING LS300

Stay informed on the status of your signals with our remote monitoring package. Relying on cellular networks, this modem is specially programmed to text or email system status updates for users. This allows users to be the first to know when the signals have gone down for any reason.

The LS300 is a fully integrated solution offered by OMJC Signal, and only uses a small amount of data per month, keeping your cellular bill low.